

2 Course Registration

(1) Course Registration

Course registration is submitting registration plan to the provosts of your affiliated school after planning and receiving guidance and advice from instructors, etc. Course registration is the most important procedure prior to taking courses at the University of Tsukuba. Refer to the course registration guidebook given at the time of admission and confirm which credits are necessary for graduation for your program. Please be sure to complete the registration procedures within the specified time period.

If you are unable to register during the specified period due to unavoidable circumstances, please contact the Academic Service Office of the Undergraduate Student Affairs. If you do not register for a course you will not be able to take the course. You will not be able to earn credit for the course, even if you take the final examination.

For courses and credits required for graduation, please refer to Course Registration Guidebook distributed at the time of enrollment. Furthermore, this booklet (the Course Catalogue and Syllabi) providing information on courses offered are distributed every academic year.

The subject area you should take your courses from will vary by the affiliated schools/colleges of the major you would like to study. Additionally, the selection of majors of schools/colleges is already established.
