

Special Lecture by

The Garr Reynolds “Presentation Zen” guy

This is an English lecture.

How can you communicate your research results clearly? Or propose your business idea more effectively? Can you make a good impression at your job interview? As we all know, presenting is a necessary skill for everyone. In this seminar, internationally acclaimed communications expert Garr Reynolds, author of the best-selling book “Presentation Zen”, shares his practical knowledge and techniques necessary for presenting, that will change the way you think about making presentations with PowerPoint and Keynote.

※ Due to the popularity of the seminar last year, we planned the same seminar this year again.

Outline

Date July 26 (Fri), 2019

Time 15:30~17:00

Place University Hall

Who Should Attend Students and Staff

Please bring Student/Employee ID card with you.

KEY POINTS

Preparation

Restraint and Storytelling

Design

How to make a simple slide

Delivery

Engage with audience

How to sign up

Register from the link below by July 23.
Walk-in is acceptable but pre-registration is appreciated.
Please use the address of “tsukuba.ac.jp” for registration.

<http://bit.ly/TsukubaUniv-Z2>

About the speaker

Garr Reynolds

Garr Reynolds is an internationally acclaimed communications consultant and the former Manager of Worldwide User Group Relations at Apple, Inc. Garr's approach is often described as “Steve Job’s presentation meets Zen” and his communication style embraces the Zen tenets of restraint, simplicity and naturalness. A sought-after speaker and consultant worldwide, his clients include many in the Fortune 500 and well-recognized universities. Garr serves on the board of the U.S.-Japan Education Commission (Fulbright) and is currently Professor at Kansai Gaidai University.

Presentation Zen Series by Garr Reynolds

Presentation Zen
(2nd Edition)

Presentation Zen Design

The Naked Presenter

Hosted by University of Tsukuba .

Cooperation by Adobe Systems Incorporated.