

Correction of Bachelor's Program in Interdisciplinary Engineering
Application Guidelines for AY 2024

August 29, 2023
University of Tsukuba

We would like to correct and apologize for the following error in the application guidelines published on July 25, 2023.

When applying to the Bachelor's Program in Interdisciplinary Engineering, we ask that you carefully review the corrections before submitting your application.

Errata:

Description of 2, Entrance Examination Schedule (Japan Standard Time), 3, Requirements for Application, 6. Application Documents, 7. Announcement of the Screening Results

Correction details:

2. Entrance Examination Schedule (Japan Standard Time)	Misstatement	Second Stage Screening (Pre-operation Check for web-based interviews) March 1, 2024
	Correct description	Second Stage Screening (Pre-operation Check for web-based interviews) February 27, 2024

3. Requirements for Application (2) Application Conditions [2] English Proficiency	Misstatement	Qualification	Score
		TOEFL (iBT)	80 or higher
		IELTS (Academic)	6.5 or higher
	Correct description	Qualification	Score
		TOEFL (iBT) / TOEFL iBT Home edition	80 or higher
		IELTS (Academic) / IELTS online	6.5 or higher

3. Requirements for Application (2) Application Conditions [3] Mathematical Skill	Misstatement	1. You are required to submit an official score directly from the testing agency by December 1, 2023.
	Correct description	1. You are required to request the sending of an official score directly from the testing agency by December 1, 2023. 5. We accept "Digital SAT" as well.

6. Application Documents (2) Application Documents to be prepared by applicant and uploaded on TAO. viii. Test Results and Official Materials of Standardized Examinations	Misstatement	Take one of the standardized examinations listed below, before applying. Scan and upload your test results electronically. We will accept these test results as documents supporting your academic performance. In addition, official scores should be sent to the University of Tsukuba directly in original hard copy or made available online by the testing agency (SAT: Code 7264, ACT: Code 1876) or please submit a hard copy of the original certificate. These score reports should include Mathematics. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• International Baccalaureate</li> <li>• Abitur [Germany]</li> <li>• GCE A-Level/International A-Level [UK]</li> <li>• SAT/ACT [US]</li> </ul>
	Correct description	Take one of the standardized examinations listed below, before applying. Scan and upload your test results electronically. We will accept these test results as documents supporting your academic performance. Regarding SAT, ACT and IBDP Final Grades, official scores should be sent to the University of Tsukuba directly in original hard copy or made available online by the testing agency (SAT: Code 7264, ACT: Code 1876). The request for sending an official score to the testing agency must be done by December 1. These score reports should include Mathematics. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• International Baccalaureate*</li> <li>• Abitur [Germany]</li> <li>• GCE A-Level/International A-Level* [UK]</li> <li>• SAT/ACT [US]</li> </ul> Note: For the starred(*) examinations, predicted grades can be acceptable.

7. Announcement of the Screening Results (1) First Stage Screening	Misstatement	Successful applicants from the first stage screening must pay the JPY 13,000 fee for the second stage screening within the stated payment period between February 9 and 16.
	Correct description	Successful applicants from the first stage screening must pay the JPY 13,000 fee for the second stage screening within the stated payment period between February 9 and February 13.