Requirements for Program Completion

Subprogram in History and Anthropology, Master's Program in Humanities
Degree Programs in Humanities and Social Sciences
Graduate School of Business Sciences, Humanities and Social Sciences

Subject Area	Subject Group or Subject Name, etc.	Conditions	Number of Credits
General Foundation Subjects	"Joint Seminar for Master's Thesis"	Required Courses	1
	"Introduction to Research Methods" "Academic Writing and Research Ethics"	Electively Required Courses	1
	Degree Programs' Common Courses (Excluding the three subjects listed above) Graduate General Education Courses Inter-disciplinary Foundation Courses	Electively Required Courses	2～
Foundation Subjects for Major		Electively Required Courses	8～
Major Subjects		Electively Required Courses	8～
		Required Credits for Completion	30

(Completion Requirements)
Students must be enrolled in the program for at least two years, acquire at least 30 credits by taking the required courses as specified below, receive necessary research supervision, and pass the master's thesis and the final examinations. However, for those who have made outstanding achievements, enrollment for at least one year is sufficient.
(1) 2 credits from Degree Programs' Common Courses - "Joint Seminar for Master's Thesis" (Required Courses) and "Introduction to Research Methods" or "Academic Writing and Research Ethics" (Electively Required Courses)
(2) At least 2 credits from Degree Programs' Common Courses (Excluding the three subjects listed above), Graduate General Education Courses or Inter-disciplinary Foundation Courses
(3) At least 8 credits specified by the affiliation from Foundation Subjects for Major - Basic Seminar in each area (IA to IIB),or "Basic Seminar in History and Anthropology"(IA to IIB)
(4) At least 8 credits from Major Subjects
(5) Courses in other subprograms, etc. may be included in Foundation Subjects for Major, and Major Subjects.

(Note)　If deemed instrumental for educational purposes, credits earned by taking courses in other degree programs, etc. may be accepted as required credits for completion, within the range determined by Master's Program in Humanities, up to a maximum of 10 credits.