Required Credits for Completion			6

(Completion Requirements)

Students must be enrolled in the program for at least three years, acquire at least 6 credits by taking the required courses as specified below, receive necessary research supervision, and pass the Doctoral dissertation and the final examinations. However, for those who have made outstanding achievements, enrollment for at least one year is sufficient. (For those who have completed a master's program early, three years including the period of enrollment in the master's program.)

(1) 6 credits specified by the affiliation as Major Subjects – Thesis Research and Preparation in History and Anthropology (IA to IIIB), or Advanced Field Study (A/B) in each area.

- Attending the “Research Ethics Guidance” provided by Degree Programs in Humanities and Social Sciences is a requirement for completion of the program.

- To submit a certificate of completion of the e-learning course (eL-CoRE or eAPRIN [formerly CITI Japan]) at the time of application for preliminary doctoral dissertation review is a requirement for completion of the program.

(Note1) It is recommended that students take 1 credit from Degree Programs' Common Courses or Graduate General Education Courses.

(Note2) If deemed instrumental for educational purposes, credits earned by taking courses in other degree programs, etc. may be accepted as required credits for completion, within the range determined by Doctoral Program in Humanities.
