Message from Prof. M. Kato, Vice-president (Education)

Rapidly globalized modern society needs “Global Jinzai” –global human resources, with an international mindset. Such global leaders are fundamental to academic activities, researches, business, etc. under mutual understanding in the culturally diverse world. Students are specially requested to acquire a deep global mind to solve various problems we face today and in the future. The new courses will provide you the necessary knowledge, mind, skills and practical experiences for being a Global Jinzai.

Please check the posters and website of each subject for details.
