

3rd Kakenhi Seminar for Non-Japanese Researchers

July 6, 2021 (Tue) 10:10-11:40

Hyflex Meeting

(Special Conference Room, 3rd floor of the University Hall, and Zoom)

The CEGLOC FD Committee, in cooperation with URA and Jinsha, will hold its third “Kakenhi Seminar for Non-Japanese Researchers” in a Hyflex format, enabling participation face-2-face or through Zoom. The event will be carried out in English, but the seminar is open to all faculty and researchers who are interested in drafting successful Kakenhi/JSPS grant applications.

Registration is required. Register by July 4, 2021!

To register, click here or read the QR code.

We will send you the Zoom meeting link later.

SEMINAR PROGRAM

10:10-10:15 Welcome Remarks

Assistant Professor Anubhuti Chauhan (CEGLOC FD Committee Vice Chair)

10:15-10:35 “Managing the two ‘unknowns’ for effective grant proposal: Lessons learnt from successful applications”

Assistant Professor Murod Ismailov (Humanities and Social Sciences, Center for Education of Global Communication)

10:40-11:00 “Some personal reflections on applying for Kakenhi”

Assistant Professor James Harry Morris (Humanities and Social Sciences)

11:05-11:25 “Kakenhi application strategy and attention points from URA”

University Research Administrator Chen Chen (Research Administration/ Management Office)

11:25-11:40 General Q&A, informal communication, closing remarks

Associate Professor Ruth Vanbaelen (CEGLOC FD Committee Chair)

Seminar Organizers

CEGLOC FD Committee

JINSHA

Contact: CEGLOC FD Committee Chair, Ruth Vanbaelen <vanbaelen.ruth.gp@u.tsukuba.ac.jp>